 THE RUNNING RACES.

There was an exciting incident in ection with the first race at the running meeting yesterday afternoon. On the home stretch Brown Fonso tripped and fell, actually turning a omplete somersault. Jockey Champ was pitched forward in the mud about ten feet, and Fonso almost touched him in rolling over. Champ pluckily rode th rolling over. Champ plucklly rode throughout the afternoon in spite of his shake-up. He rode a winner in the next race, placed Little Lady in the next race, placed Little Lady in the next, and showed in the last two races. The finishes were all close, and the favorites fared better than any day during the week.

A programme of especial interest is being arranged for Monday, and it is altogether likely that there will be the banner attendance of the meeting. The feature will be the White Front handicap, six furlongs. The White Front contributes $100 each starter will add $5 and the club will give the usual purse. The purse in the race will amount to more than $200.

BOXING.

Frank Bradley has wired the Metropolitan Athletic Club that he will arrive here Sunday in good shape for his battle with Oscar Gardner, on Tuesday evening. Thei bout is causing unusual interest, especially among those well informed on boxing affairs, as they are well aware that Bradley, who is a young aggressive boxer with ambitions for a place among the "champs," will extend himself to the utmost to gain the referee's decision. The Philadel-phian is undoubtedly the best opponent phian is undoubtedly the best opponent ever selected to meet Oscar in this sec-tion and the lovers of scientific boxing are very fortunate in having such a splendid opportunity of seeing what would be considered a rare treat in any of the big clubs in the east.

are invited to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter, without fee or charge of any kind. Dr. Pierce is a specialist in the diseases of women. He has treated over half-a-million women for diseases of the womanly organs and ninety-eight out of every hundred women he has treated have been absolutely and perfectly cured. Every letter received by Dr. Pierce, is treated as a purely personal and private communication and its contents guarded as a succed confidence. All answers to these letters are sent in realed cavelopes bearing upon them no printing or advertising whatever.

Write to the doctor. It is no use for the doctor. It is no use to "write to a man unless he a doctor. It is no use to "write to a monan" unless the woman is a doctor. Write to a woman about cookery or any baseds of terrest seniors.
